Dear Sirs,

Please be advised of the following in respect of Jewel Blade products and the impact of the European community REACH directive.

As a downstream user we do not produce any substances or preparations that require registration under REACH, we only manufacture articles which do not need registration under REACH. However some of our suppliers will have preparations and substances that may be required to be registered. As a downstream user our suppliers have been contacted to provide the required information of their responsibilities under the legislation.

Regarding the candidate list of substances of very high concern, neither products manufactured by Jewel Blade Limited or substances / preparations supplied to Jewel Blade Limited contain any of these chemicals.

If you require any further information the point of contact is:-

Robert Radford,
Health & Safety Regulatory Affairs Manager,
Jewel Blade Limited,
